Lt. Jim Main is currently in his 16th year with the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office, Florida. He is the Project Manager for the Facial Recognition Project, as well as the new Jail Inmate Management System.

As Project Manager for the Facial Recognition Project, Lt. Main planned for and oversaw the installation of systems throughout the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office including a new mugshot system which incorporates Facial Recognition technology from the time a new inmate is brought into the jail, throughout processing, and even at the point of release from jail.

Other systems related to the Facial Recognition Project include the installation of Facial Recognition "Watch" systems installed at the Saint Petersburg/Clearwater International Airport, Pinellas County Jail Visitation Center and Criminal Justice Center.

Lt. Main received a Bachelor's Degree in Business from Saint Leo College, graduating with Magna Cum Laude honors.
